PASTOR'S PONDERINGS... "Love the Lord Your God With All Your Strength"

THE MOUNTAIN VISTA SPORTS REPORT

Philippians 3:12-14. I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. 13 Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

This month I want to highlight the SPORTS MINISTRY at Mountain Vista. Ron Goch has done a tremendous job as coordinator over the last year, and the fellowship, friendship, and fitness are flourishing under his leadership.

1 Corinthians 9:24-27. Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. Therefore I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. No, I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

MVUMC Sports Ministry participants and numbers for each sport:

Bowling (72); golf (39); softball (23); walking (15); and walking to running (6); Total: 155.

Mark 12:28-31. One of the teachers of the law ... asked Jesus, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these."

In Christ,

Pastor Steve

I lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from?

My help comes from the LORD-- Maker of heaven and earth. --Psalm 121:1-2

Message from the Bishop

The United Methodist Church - Rocky Mountain Conference

Elaine J.W. Stanovsky -Resident Bishop

To: Mission-minded United Methodists in the Yellowstone and Rocky Mountain Conferences,

Jesus said, "Follow me." Is Jesus beckoning you to follow to Haiti?

As you know a terrible earthquake struck Haiti in 2010 that devastated the nation. Years of recovery work will be necessary to dig out from the rubble and rebuild homes and communities. Members of the executive staffs of these two conferences will travel with me on a mission trip to Haiti. We're looking for a few intrepid disciples of Jesus Christ to join us. You might be one of those disciples or you may know someone who might be.

WHO? Lay and clergy disciples who work well on a team and are capable of hard physical work in very hot, humid weather. All participants are expected to support continuing recovery work in Haiti after they return.

WHAT? United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) team to Haiti.

WHERE? Haiti. We don't know the project sites yet.

WHEN? October 21-29,2011 (Applications are due no later than July 15.)

WHY? Because Jesus calls us to transform the world. Because our faith deepens and our leadership expands in relationships with people whose lives are very different from our own.

COST? Each participant is responsible for accommodation and projects costs of about $1100 plus travel costs to Haiti.

Team leaders will be Debbie Irby, UMVIM coordinator from the Yellowstone Conference and Rev. Deb Olenyik, Wyoming District Superintendent from the Rocky Mountain Conference. Rev. Jim Gulley, who works with UMCOR in Haiti, will introduce us to the Methodist Church of Haiti and its many ministries.

If you are able to offer yourself for this trip, please submit your application no later than July 15. We'll make prayerful decisions to form a balanced team by the end of July.

God bless you as you prayerfully consider this opportunity.

Elaine J W Stanovsky

News from Joplin, MO

Dear Colleagues,

I give God thanks for every one of you for your many kind emails, voice messages, phone calls, and expressions of concern following the devastating tornado that destroyed much of Joplin, MO. Among those killed were several United Methodists, and every United Methodist Church in the area has members who have lost their homes. All our pastors and church staff are safe. We lost two church buildings, including St. Paul United Methodist Church (a large, strong, vibrant congregation with an average attendance of close to 1000), and we lost the District Superintendent's Office. Several other churches and parsonages received more limited damage. The hospital and five of the seven schools in Joplin were nearly completely destroyed.

The Missouri Conference Disaster Response team has been active and effective from the earliest hours, and many of our churches have sent trained First Responder teams. Tom Hazlewood from UMCOR was on the ground in Joplin within 24 hours. Many of you have generously offered funds directly to the Missouri Conference and others have expressed your intention of supporting the UMCOR Spring Storms appeal. All of your gifts are appreciated. In addition many have expressed their active interest in sending VIM teams to the area. Please refrain from doing so during the immediate days ahead since only highly trained and professional teams are on-site at this time. However, we shall covet your help during the weeks and months to come.

The city of Joplin was named after Rev. Harris Joplin, an early Methodist preacher who settled there in 1839. For years, he hosted people in his home and led them in worship, prayer, and singing. His ministry was one of hospitality in the truest sense, and he used his own humble dwelling as a tool for ministry. As far as I know, the building he used no longer exists, but the church community he founded provided the seeds from which dozens of area congregations have sprouted. All of us who are Missouri United Methodists are to some degree the fruit of his ministry.

Tornadoes and hurricanes and floods and fires can take away our beloved and sacred places in a moment's time, but the love of God that binds us to another is not nearly so vulnerable. God's persistent and persevering love causes us to reach out to help a neighbor and to embrace strangers and to assist one another in the rebuilding of lives. The church is not the pile of lumber and bricks left after the destroying winds and rains; the church is the gathering of people standing above the rubble unified by the spirit of Christ to love and serve others. The church is the people counseling one another through unfathomable grief and loss. The church is people risking lives for their neighbors and opening their homes to strangers. The church is people across the state and nation and world praying and giving and preparing to offer their best and highest in service to help rebuild lives. The church is alive and vigorous and redeeming. It is grace in every gesture and love in every action. The church is the body of Christ doing the things Jesus did in Jesus' name today.

Thanks to you, United Methodists will rebuild in Joplin. On behalf of others of our colleagues whose areas have been affected by tornadoes and floods, I strongly encourage you to lift up the UMCOR Spring Storms appeal. Funds at UMCOR are extraordinarily low right now, and this severely limits our capacity to act quickly and effectively during times of tragedy. Your help is appreciated.

Yours in Christ,
Robert Schnase, Missouri Conference

Message from the District Superintendent

Friends,

Patience is often a key to success in ministry. Today's Life and Ministry Booster is about how to find the patience we may need as we love others in Christ's name. This message is archived at www.tinyurl.com/6gh227s.

TO REMEMBER IS TO UNDERSTAND

Does this sound familiar?

James was cleaning out the attic one day when he came across a ticket from a shoe repair shop. The date stamped on the ticket showed it was over eleven years old. He felt sure the shoes would not still be there, but decided to stop by and check anyway.

He handed the ticket to the man behind the counter, who scowled at the date. "Just a minute," said the clerk. "I'll have to look for these." He disappeared into a back room.

After a few minutes, the clerk called out, "What do you know - here they are!"

"That's terrific!" said James, hardly believing his good fortune.

The man came back to the counter, empty-handed. "They'll be ready Thursday," he said.

I hope James is the patient sort.

We should all be masters of patience; after all, we've had plenty of practice. But mustering patience with unreasonable people (including ourselves) may seem more than we can manage some days.

I heard about an elderly patient in an American hospital who was recovering from a medical procedure. He decided to take a look at his recovery-room record attached to the bed frame. He leafed through the pages, then stopped at one particular notation and furled his brow in consternation.

"I know I was in a bit of a muddle, but I didn't realize I was that bad," he said apologetically to his nurse. "I hope I didn't offend anyone."

She glanced to the spot where he pointed. "Don't worry," she said. "SOB doesn't mean what you think. It stands for 'short of breath.'"

But I suspect that in some cases it does have a double meaning. Especially if the patient is in pain, fearful or just plain out of sorts. (And that goes for some of the hospital staff, too.)

Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher once said, "I am extraordinarily patient, provided I get my own way in the end." But we don't always get our own way. And patience can be taxed beyond reason. Where does understanding come from when it feels as if there is nothing left?

It can come from the simple act of remembering. To remember is to understand. It is not about gritting one's teeth and forcing oneself to be more patient. It is actually easier than that.

Do you remember what it was like to be a child? No parent should ever forget. And to remember is to understand.

Do you remember what it was like to be a student? Every teacher should try to remember, and especially if they feel frustrated.

Do you remember what it is like to be a patient? Doctors and nurses show more empathy after they have also spent time in a hospital bed.

Do you remember what it was like to be lonely? To be first? To be last? To fail? To succeed? To be afraid? To remember is to understand.

And to understand is to be patient.
